

CardRatings.com Shares 10 Reasons Your Readers Need a Small Business Credit Card

October 31, 2019

Foster City, CA – October 31, 2019 – Side hustling entrepreneurs might have the next big idea, but sometimes miss an important step when setting up a small business: Acquiring a company credit card to keep expenses separate.

CardRatings.com, a leader in credit card ratings, shares the reasons why now is the right time for small business owners to get their finances right. Brooklyn Lowery, CardRatings.com's editor, is available to share her expertise on the advantages of setting up a credit card for a small business, including:

- How business credit cards often have better terms than personal credit cards, including higher credit limits and the ability to extend a billing cycle
- More flexibility, since revolving lines of credit can only be used for large purchases
- Exactly why keeping business and personal expenses separate is ideal

For more details, you can read an overview on the subject, 10 Reasons You DON'T Need a Small Business Credit Card.
