

CardRatings.com Reveals the Best Cash Back Credit Cards of 2020

February 20, 2020

Foster City, CA – February 20, 2020 – A recent survey showed credit card holders in the United States choose cards that put cash back in their pockets, not ones that earn points or miles. While cash is still king, cardholders should select a card that aligns with spending habits, financial goals and credit history. With hundreds of different options, how does one choose?

CardRatings.com, one of the first websites to offer credit card ratings and reviews more than 20 years ago, just announced the best cash back credit cards of 2020 across nine categories to make the decision a bit easier for consumers. From 3% cash back for online shopping, to a card designed with foodies in mind, to a small business card with a $500 signup bonus, CardRatings experts view this list as having something for everyone.

Tiered Rewards

- Capital One® Savor® Cash Rewards Credit Card - rewards well for dining out and cooking at home; a $300 bonus after spending $3,000 on purchases in the first three months, no foreign transaction fees and no annual fee for the first year ($95 after that).

Flat-rate

- Citi® Double Cash Card - 18 month BT offer - no annual fee and a simple earning structure that allows cardholders to earn more than the typical flat-rate cash-back rewards credit card

Cash-back with Rotating Categories

- Chase Freedom® - 5% cash back up to a spending cap in multiple categories that rotate quarterly; rewards points can be combined in a single pot if you happen to have other Chase cards that operate on the Ultimate Rewards® system

Cash-back with Cardholder's Choice Rewards

- Bank of America® Cash Rewards - no annual fee and an option to choose the top rewards category on spending up to a quarterly cap; solid rewards for everyday spending beyond the top category and the opportunity to up cash back earning by 25%-75% more on each purchase as a Preferred Rewards member.
