

Bronwyn Syiek Takes Over as President of QuinStreet, Inc.

Foster City, California, February 7, 2007 - QuinStreet, Inc. announced today that chief operating officer Bronwyn Syiek is taking on the additional role of company president. Ms Syiek joined QuinStreet on the founding team with Chief Executive Officer Doug Valenti in 1999 and has been chief operating officer since April 2004.

In her role as COO, Ms Syiek runs the day-to-day operations and line functions of the company, encompassing sales, marketing, media, and engineering. Ms Syiek's credentials include serving on the management committee of De La Rue, a major European provider of on and off-line security products and services with over $1 billion in annual turnover; four years as consultant with McKinsey & Company, Inc.; and co-founding an investment banking boutique.

CEO Doug Valenti said, "Bronwyn's appointment to president acknowledges her tremendous ongoing contribution to QuinStreet, her breadth of responsibilities, and her outstanding leadership. It also better reflects to outsiders the scope and level of the role she already fills. No-one has done more than Bronwyn to make QuinStreet a great Company and business. The Board, her colleagues here, and I are proud to have her as QuinStreet's president."
